

Massachusetts (Parody of “Massachusetts” by the Bee Gees)

Your folly all began in Massachusetts Where the wedding fags first found a home
Now God’s light has gone out in Massachusetts
And the whole nation reaps just what you have sown

Took your filthy cues from San Francisco
Where perverts do the things they wanna do
So the light has gone out in Massachusetts
You’ve brought God’s wrath, it’s poured out on you

Now fag marriage spreads from Massachusetts
You’ve ignored our picket signs that loom
And the lights will go out in Massachusetts
This greatest sin will be your final doom

God will remember Massachusetts
God will remember Massachusetts

God will destroy Massachusetts
God will destroy Massachusetts
