

He Will Always Hate You (Whitney)

If you had obeyed, you would not be in those flames
Now you know, that it's so, God hated you every step of your way
And God will always hate you – ooh!
Oh Whitney, He hates you
Now you, you druggie you,
Mhhhh
All your sins' memories, that is what you left all to see
It's too late, at 48
Now you can't tell others to heed
Cuz God will always hate you
Oh Whitney, He hates you
(Musical interlude.)
Your God treated you kind
Gave your voice, a talent to use
And you played the whore, with filthiness
But above all this, our signs you refused
And God will always hate you
He will always hate you
Whitney you know He hates you
He will always hate you!
He will always hate you!
He will always hate you! You!
Druggie, He hates you
He will always, He will always hate youooh-ooh
