

"Please Bring Their Destruction" Is Our Prayer Tonight

(To Phil Collins' "In The Air Tonight")

"Please bring their destruction" is our prayer tonight, Oh Lord
We've been praying for your vengeance, all our lives, Oh Lord
"Please bring their destruction" is our prayer tonight, Oh Lord, Oh Lord
Well, when we told you stop your sinning
You did not give a damn
We've seen the face of all your hate
Like Cain, we know that you're all on the lam
Well, we've been here, and we saw what you did
We saw it with our very eyes
God soon will wipe off your grins, and silence your dins
You've trusted a pack of lies!
"Please bring their destruction" is our prayer tonight, Oh Lord
We been suff'ring their reproaches, for all our lives, Oh Lord
You've sworn you would bring them all their fears at night, Oh Lord
We've been praying for that moment all our lives, Oh Lord, Oh Lord
Well we remember ... we remember don't worry
How could we ever forget from your first crime; your last crime ... you ever get.
But we know the reason why you're so delusional
Why you just can't see
Our God is your foe; your rebellion grows
Your destruction just has to be!
And we ask for their destruction in our prayers tonight, Oh Lord
We've been waiting for God's vengeance, for all our lives, Oh Lord
"Please bring their destruction" is our prayer tonight, Oh Lord
Cuz we've been suff'ring their reproaches, for all our lives, Oh Lord
And we ask for their destruction in our prayers tonight, Oh Lord
We've been waiting for God's vengeance, for all our lives, Oh Lord
"Please bring their destruction" is our prayer tonight, Oh Lord
Cuz we've been suff'ring their reproaches, for all our lives, Oh Lord
