

God Won't Let This (Fag Marriage) Go (Parody of "Won't Let Go" by Rascall Flatts)

Just like a storm
It cut a path
Fag marriage came
To this vile land

Now all is lost
When fury comes -- from God's throne
You're on your own

God won't stand by you
He will destroy you
You've done the worst that you can do
You're without hope
And before your eyes
God against you fights
Satan's grip is tight
God won't let this go

Your evil hearts
Your rebel cry
Into the dark
You've lost your life
God sees it all (sees it all)
Sins great and small
Fag marriage reigns
Goin' down in flames

God won't stand by you
He will destroy you
You've done the worst that you can do
You're without hope
And before your eyes
God against you fights
Satan's grip is tight
God won't let this go

This nation will fall
Preachers lied to you
God has cast you down
In your sorrows drown
You're not gonna make it
God's not gonna take it

God won't stand by you
This evil nation's through
You've done the worst that you can do
You're without hope
And right before your eyes
God against you fights
Satan's grip is tight
He won't let this go – ooh, ooh, ooh
You know we've warned you
God won't let fag marriage go
He won't let it go
