

No Hope (sung to Hatikvah – The Hope)

Christ is soon returning
To take you from that land
You won't obey him
Or do what He commands

Wrath will soon pour on you
For your awful sin
Your great affliction
It will soon begin

All the nations, on Israel will march
You're not Zion; no hope in your hearts

You killed the Savior; for this crime you all must pay
Those who fear God come out from them today

The God of mercy – He will call His people home
The rest of you Jews will die with hearts of stone!
