

One Day

You've gone astray; it's coming soon
Despite all your schemin'
Think you may evade your doom
It's coming fast for a reason

Put your proud rebellion down
Or forever in your grief you'll drown
All the nations will come to surround
Jerusalem; it will be trodden down because

All you Jews have been fightin' for
You've been pushin' for
For the people to say
That we will not obey no more
We can end these wars
We can keep God at bay, one day

There is no doubt: you will lose
'cause you abuse
You won't heed all the words of the covenant.
God vowed torment. Keep on defying
Though the slaughter is nighing.

There's hope for some
Who've lost your way, your way
The affliction is coming but
Those who repent will be safe, be safe

Put your proud rebellion down
Or forever in your grief you'll drown
All the nations will come to surround
Jerusalem; it will be trodden down because

All you Jews have been fightin' for
You've been pushin' for
For the people to say
That we will not obey no more
We can end these wars
We can keep God at bay, one day

Your God, He will not change
His promise the same
Obey the commandments
Stop with the hate
You never will be free
Can't help but be
Bound by His standards
Justifying Sodom 'cause

All you Jews have been fightin' for
You've been pushin' for
For the people to say
That we will not obey no more
We can end these wars
We can keep God at bay, one day
