

Think Gd fr vrythng
(Parody of "Thnks Fr Th Mmrs" by Fall Out Boy)

The cords you cast and bands you break
(rage and imagine a vain thing)
Say a prayer but you won't eat the roll
You think God doesn't know?
(you won't eat the roll, you won't eat the roll)
Shut his people up, won't make things right
'cause it's your wrongs that show you need the bread of life
"Who does he think he is?"
If that's the way you think then God Almighty's your enemy

One God one truth one way
Thank God for everything
To the Lord our praises sing
"His word like honey, only sweeter,"
He wounds, heals, makes alive and kills
Thank God for everything, Thank God for everything
"The voice of God breaketh the cedars"

Look close at your eternal future
But your eyesight is goin' bad
you're headed to hell
Follow your lusts and us ignore
Your space to repent (repent will pass)
Chaff he'll fan (chaff he'll fan, oh)

One God one truth one way
Thank God for everything
To the Lord our praises sing
"His word like honey, only sweeter,"
He wounds, heals, makes alive and kills
Thank God for everything, Thank God for everything
"The voice of God breaketh the cedars"

You think abomination has strength in numbers
Like that Great Whore, paying all her lovers
His word is out of mind and his hatred only grows
Instead of obeying God, your filthy sins you pursued, whoa

One God one truth one way
Thank God for everything
To the Lord our praises sing
"His word like honey, only sweeter,"
He wounds, heals, makes alive and kills
Thank God for everything, Thank God for everything
"The voice of God breaketh the cedars"

One God one truth one way (One God one truth one way)
Thank God for everything
To the Lord our praises sing
" His word like honey, only sweeter." (Oh)
One God one truth one way (One God one truth one way)
Thank God for everything, Thank God for everything (Thank God for everything, Thank God for everything)
"The voice of God breaketh the cedars" (Oh)
