

40 HOUR WEEK OF SINNIN'

(Parody of "40 Hour Week" by Alabama)

There are people in this country serving God today
The God who destroyed Sodom's still alive With signs, songs, and twitter, they warn you every day
Now fag marriage has a vote of five

Hello pervert Supreme Court, you're to blame for those dead nine
You work a 40 hour week of sinnin', and you send 'em
on down hell's line Hello lying, phony preachers, you're to blame for those dead nine
You preach a 40 hour week of sinnin', and just send it on down hell's line.

This is for the one who says "God loves you," leading you to hell
Or the one who for fag couples, rings the wedding bell
Or the phony divorced Christian, pretendin' all is well
For all the raging mobs who howl and scream

You can see 'em in the churches, where they say that gay's OK
In the homes and schools of every single town Working together, the Christian and the gay They'll soon burn this nation to the ground

Hello hateful, ignorant teachers, you're to blame for those dead nine
You teach a 40 hour week of sinnin', and you send 'em
on down hell's line Hello filthy fags getting married, you're to blame for those dead nine
You work a 40 hour week of sinnin', and you send 'em
on down hell's line

This is for the one who tore the covenant, between a man and wife
Or the one who props the flag up, his idols are his life Or the selfish hating parents, how they eat their children whole
For all the raging mobs who howl and scream

With a spirit full of hatred for the King Hey doomed America – you're to blame for those dead nine

Oh wicked land of sodomites – God hates the U.S.A.!
