

You're a Filthy Flag
(Sung to "You're a Grand Old Flag")

You're a filthy flag
You're a red, bloody flag
And the perverts they love you to wave
You're the emblem of
The fags they love
The home of the warped and depraved
Every thing they do
'neath your Red, White and Blue
Makes the decent folks all want to gag
They'll face the wrath of God for sure
Cuz they worshipped a filthy flag

You're a gruesome flag
You're a soul damning flag
And forever in hell you will wave
You're the emblem of
The sin they love
The home of the coward and knave
All the words they say
'neath your Red, White and Blue
Polluted your God-hating rag
Now all that's left is punishment
Cuz they worshipped a filthy flag
