Alpha Chi Omega
REAL. STRONG. WOMEN.

A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast:
but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
(Proverbs 12:10)

Alpha Chi Omega is a college sorority founded in 1885 at DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana. They now boast 230,000 members of their women-only sorority at 130 colleges across the country, and some 100 alumnae chapters. They have fought for years to maintain their status as a single-sex organization, where women can gather in free association with other women only. They have many volunteer projects, including robust programs of domestic violence and sexual assault awareness. That “women only” part is important to them. And they have a snappy marketing campaign with a core slogan that represents them: REAL. STRONG. WOMEN.

So, on the surface it's a mystery that they announced last week they would be pursuing men, pretending for the moment to act as women, to join their sorority. How wicked. It's when they carry on about being first in the nation to invite men-acting-as-women to join their women-only sorority that you see the cruel selfishness of it. They will publicly exploit a soul so steeped in grave rebellion and gross ingratitude as to purport the impossible: swapping genders. To feed their own egos, promote their own organizational interests, and diminish (by comparison) their own sins. How cruel. The Lord willing, WBC will encourage Alpha Chi Omega to seek repentance from this cruelty, and to obey God who formed them.

GOD LOVES GRATEFUL, HUMBLE OBEDIENCE!
