LORD WILLING, THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST WILL BE PREACHED WHEN FOO FIGHTERS RETURN TO KANSAS CITY'S SPRINT CENTER: FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12TH, FROM 6:30 – 7:15 PM

WBC PARODY OF FOO FIGHTERS 'THE PRETENDER':

No rock band has had more up close and personal exposure to the preaching of Westboro Baptist Church than Dave Grohl's Foo Fighters, by God's grace. In 2011, Dave, Taylor and the boys came outside of their gig venue on a flatbed truck and made a mock at sin by serenading the servants of God with a filthy song (don't worry, we cleaned it up a bit, and gave it appropriate, godly lyrics: <https://youtu.be/cFSop2c5sr8>). But they got the message – hence the reaction. In 2015, Dave and the boys came outside their show venue again, this time to make a mock at sin by 'Rick Rolling' the servants of God (<https://youtu.be/CnTas4RIyjc>). Again, they got the message; otherwise, there would have been no 'Rick Roll'. In 2017, the Gospel was likewise preached at their Wichita, Kansas venue, and Lord willing, the servants of God in Topeka will deliver the same message again to Dave Grohl and his merry band of God-mockers in KC. And here is the message: There is a God who created you. You draw breath by His omnipotent hand. All of your talents, your temporal blessings, your fame, your fortune, are all given directly and specifically by God. You have been greatly blessed, from a temporal perspective. And after having been given these tremendous gifts and blessings at the hand of the God who made you, you remain unthankful unto Him. Unthankful by not specifically thanking Him and giving Him the glory for your fame and success. Unthankful by disobeying the standards of God and mocking them in every outward display. Unthankful by not raising your children by God's standard. Unthankful by encouraging your fans, friends and neighbors to rebel against God by disobeying him. Unthankful by glorifying, encouraging, normalizing and sanitizing sin in your lyrics, interviews and actions. You are workers of iniquity; you make it your vocation to encourage others to sin. When you see servants of God preaching a humble message of warning to your fans, out of a love and reverent fear of God and a true love and compassion for their neighbors, you go to great lengths to attempt to vilify the messengers and mock the message. This is a great cruelty that you've done to your fans and one another. Like all of us, you stand in need of a Saviour, as you cannot bear the weight of sin that you have wrought. Hey Dave, hey Taylor, hey Pat Smear (who would choose and use such a disgusting, bad pun stage name? Yikes!): God Hates Foo Fighters! Your only hope in eternity is to repent of your sins and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ - who is the ONLY Saviour - while by the merciful hand of God you still have breath of life in your nostrils. In His great kindness, it seems that God has caused our collective lots to intertwine once again. And so, God willing, His people will be out in front of the Foo Fighters show to once again deliver this simple, clear, vital message to both Foo Fighters and their fans. There is a God, a heaven and a hell – and there is a consequence for sin. And since all men sin, then all stand in need of a Saviour to pay that debt of sin. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, turn from your wicked ways, humble yourselves before God, give Him the glory for all things and encourage your fans to do the same!
