

We'll Be There

God with you did make a pact just obey, he's got your back but when you rebel, we'll be there

God sent forth his word to you you curse him with all you do He's put you to shame, and we'll be there

We're not here to coddle you when the hand of God's against you there's only one thing for you we'll be there with a love that's strong tell you the truth, hell keeps going on

You have filled your hearts with lust and idols Togetherness, nullifies the Bible You've fretted your maker, we'll be there We'll be there to remind you God has sent all this evil upon you He's just begun, and we'll be there

We will not bargain with you faithful words is what we give you whether a gentile or jew

If you will not bow to the Son then your all doomed, hell keeps going on Pretty soon this earth will become new God will thoroughly dispose of you He'll call us to Zion, we'll be there You're all doomed, and you know it

We'll be there

We'll be there

Whenever God smacks you, we'll be there

(Just look over your shoulders, rebels - oo)

We'll be there

We'll be there

There's no way to stop us, we'll be there God has made your efforts fail

We'll be there

We'll be there

Hell's what awaits you, you'll be there
