

BEAST IS LEAVIN' ON A JET PLANE (Parody of "Leaving On A Jet Plane by John Denver, famously sung by Peter, Paul and Mary)

All his fags are packed he's ready to go
He's standing in the White House do'
He hates you and won't even say goodbye
Oh your doom is comin'--but you won't mourn
The angel's standin'--the seal is torn
This nation is so evil it must die

He tricked you with flattery
He showed you what you had to see You're his foot stool, blind and clueless
Schmo
Beast is leavin' on a jet plane
No place for coming back again
Oh rebs, you're gonna' blow

In so many ways he's let you down
With other nations whored around His burning lust, he pines to be world king
Every place he goes, he lies on you
Like your priests, he rapes you too From Air Force One he'll laugh as bodies fling

Oh he tricked you with flattery
He hid his Muslim ancestry
You're his foot stool, fat-assed, slutty ho
Beast is leavin' on a jet plane
No place for coming back again
Oh Hebes, it's time to go

Time is near--battle is pitched Military will be his bitch
They'll close their eyes and let him have his way
He's dreamin' of the power to come He's marchin' on Christ's glorious throne
He'll drop in hell—then turn to you and say

I tricked you with flattery
Showed you what you demanded to see
You had a choice—you disobeyed
A Beast like me you monsters craved

Beast is leavin' on a jet plane
No place for coming back again
You fools--he's gonna' go
