

Battlefield (parody of “Battlefield” by Jordin Sparks)

We keep on resisting flesh
We know what’s happening here
Satan tries his best
And, suddenly, we’re on the battlefield

God’s word written for us,
How we love the smallest things that bear us up
Boldly we run to the war
Leading with the shield of faith – won’t turn back now

These words bind both hands and heart, we say them, fear God
Last days our loins are wrapped about with truth
We ain’t gonna give it up, now

Chorus:

The devil has waged a fierce war
You know, he only wants to hurt us
Everyone knows what we’re fighting for
Preaching truth always leads to the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield)
Preaching truth always leads to the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield)
Preaching truth always leads to

Must shout it out loud
Jesus Christ is gonna conquer all, mmmm
We’ll never surrender
‘Cause he is the Mighty Conqueror, oh yeah

These words bind both hands and heart, we say them (say them), fear God
Last Days our loins are wrapped about with truth
We ain’t gonna give it up, now

Chorus:

The devil has waged a fierce war
You know, he only wants to hurt us
Everyone knows what we’re fighting for
Preaching truth always leads to the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield)

Preaching truth always leads to the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield)

Better go put on God's armor, on God's armor, on God's armor (armor of God)

I guess you better go put on God's armor, on God's armor, on God's armor (armor of God)

I guess you better go and put on

You can't pretend we aren't equipped with sight (ooohhh)

And we'll rise early just to shine the light, it's alright

Cause lovelies we're fit for the fight

God's promise gives us strength to fight on the battlefield (oh), the battlefield (oh), the battlefield (oh)

Preaching truth always leads to the battlefield (oh), the battlefield (oh), the battlefield (oh)

You had better go put on God's armor

Chorus:

The devil has waged a fierce war (a fierce war)

You know, he only wants to hurt us

Everyone knows what we're fighting for (what we're fighting for)

Preaching truth always leads to the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield)

Preaching truth always leads to the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield), the battlefield (battlefield)

Guess you better go put on God's armor, on God's armor, on God's armor (armor of God)

Better go put on God's armor (armor of God) on God's armor (armor of God)

Preaching truth always leads to (ooohhh)

Preaching truth always leads to a battlefield, a battlefield

The devil has waged a fierce war (ooooohhhh)

Everyone knows what we're fighting for

The devil has waged a fierce war

Everyone knows what we're fighting for
