

God's Love (Parody of "Same Love" by Macklemore)

Teaching kids by first grade, it's ok to be gay
Final straw, Uncle Sam, made your kids fag bait
Your dads and moms, Satan's grin on their face
They're like, "If it feels good, it must be OK," trippin!
Yeah, I guess they missed the point, didn't they?
Should have cracked a Bible, filled up your head
But they already did the math like, "Yeah! That doesn't work for me"
You've been deceived, Moral compass all bent
Now you marry the same sex
Sodom's characteristics
Chasing after lust is your life long ambition
You can't be cured by some hellish false religion
The fact that God hates you is your predisposition
Fretting God, ah now there you go
America depraved, violent fags run the show
God hates faithless children, you must have forgotten
How he showed His wrath to Gibeah thirty five hundred years ago
And you know

(Bah bah)

That God won't change
Even if you cry
Even if you want Him to
No God won't change
Even if you cry
Even if you want Him to
By love, by love, by love
We've come to warn, we've come to warn, we've come to warn, we've come to warn

Too late to pray, now that you've let fags marry
Have you read "Remember Lot's Wife" lately?
Bible IQ gets dropped on the daily
You've become so numb to what we're saying
We're here to show you your transgression
That God has no acceptance for
Like a bunch of maggots squirming around all over the floor
You cannot be ashamed, forcing the world to adore you
Gay is synonymous with oppressor
Power of the dog has become your religion
This is not skin color, your favorite misdirection
That Righteous cause that led people to walk outs and sit ins
No special rights for Sodomy, actions are the difference!
Sin on, live for yourself
When you go to church they teach you nothing else
If you just pay for the service, your sins are anointed
That holy water that you soak in's full of poison
With raping priests and divorces, they've made themselves voiceless
Rather than fighting for the truth, their lies your hope has stolen
Each of you is the same, on all that's important
Freedom from your Maker, damn right you support it
(But you know)

That God won't change
Even if you cry
Even if you want Him to
By love, by love, by love
We've come to warn, we've come to warn, we've come to
warn, we've come to warn

You rebel, without pause
To Hell, march on Scales over your eyes
Every lust is your cause
Attacking Gospel preachers, framing mischief by law
Your kids are corrupted from the womb plagued by lies in their heart
World filled with violence, like when Noah built the Ark
This time there won't be water, fire will dissolve it all
At the Judgment, you'll all take part
No law is gonna save ya
It won't unchain ya
Those idols you believe in
In one stroke they're undone
You'll be filled with fear
Knowing then who God loves
About time that you shut up
Cuz you know

God won't change
Even if you cry
Even if you want Him to
No God won't change
Even if you cry
Even if you want Him to
By love, by love, by love
We've come to warn, we've come to warn, we've come to
