WBC TO PICKET KANSAS CITY PBS (125 EAST 31ST STREET, KANSAS CITY, MO) MONDAY, JUNE 3RD, FROM 11:45 – 12:30PM

America, stop teaching your children to be God-hating, Bible-rejecting children of hell!

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye compass sea and land (and public broadcasting airwaves) to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. (Matthew 23:15)

The latest in America's endless quest to cram filth down the throats of her youngsters can be found here: <http://bit.ly/NYTimesSodomiteArthur> with these opening lines:

During the season premiere of the animated series "Arthur" on Monday, Arthur, Francine, Buster and Muffy spend most of their time trying to play matchmaker for their third-grade teacher, Mr. Ratburn. In the end, Mr. Ratburn has his own plans. He ties the knot with Patrick, a local chocolatier, at a wedding attended by the students.

"Mr. Ratburn is married, I still can't believe it," Arthur says. "Yup, it's a brand-new world," Francine responds.

The episode, titled "Mr. Ratburn and the Special Someone," was the latest moment in daytime television to include a more diverse set of characters as it kicked off the show's 22nd season. The series, which airs on PBS Kids and debuted in 1996, follows the adventures of Arthur, his classmates and his family.

So WBC takes its international ministry to this nation's public television stations to show what Arthur should be inculcating into America's youth, viz.:
