

Burning Freak (Parody of 'Super Freak' by Rick James)

She's a very stinky girl
The kind who had no faithful mother
She never let the demon spirits down
Now you've got her on hell's streets-ouch girl
She liked the boys in Satan's band
The devil was her all time favorite Then God said time to remove her—it's the right time Won't listen to her pleas

That girl is pretty fried now
The girl's a burning freak
The kind of girl you read about
In every magazine
That girl is pretty stinky
She was a super freak
The flames love to taste her
& Rick James on hell's street
She's alight-what a fright
A horrid sight to see -yeah
She's a burning freak-burning freak
She's extra crispy now
Burning freak-burning freak

She's a very nasty girl
The kind of girl you perverts know
From her head down to her toenails
Skanky ho feet- yeah
She spread her legs backstagewith her whore friends
In a limousine

Spreading filth around the town
Nothing's too vile for her, she said
Full of filthy fornicating
She incensed the Lord her God—with lust and idols
You're such a freaky scene

That girl is pretty fried now
The girl's a burning freak
The kind of girl you read about
In every magazine
That girl is pretty stinky
& Rick James on hell's street
freak

Ouch! that fire stings!
Burning freak, burning freak, she's a burning freak!

She's a brimstone-covered girl All you freaks will whine and blubber
She dwells with demon spirits now
She's on the streets of hell
It's dandy!
