

Rolling in the Heat (to Adele's Rolling in the Deep)

There's rebellion burning in your heart
Reaching a fever pitch, you're groping in the dark
Time is coming – you'll see it crystal clear
False Christians sold you out, and laid your sins bare
God has cursed you, yeah, every piece of you
Don't underestimate the things that God will do

There's a fire starting in God's heart
Reaching a fever pitch
And He's comin' out the dark

The scars of your hate, remind of His love
Just keep us thinking that you could have obeyed God
The scars of your hate, your useless raging
We can't help thinking
You could've obeyed God
(You're gonna wish you had just obeyed Him)
Rolling in the heat
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)
He has your heart inside of His hand
(You're gonna wish you had just obeyed Him)
And you played it – to defeat
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)

Baby, we have a story to be told
Our God heard it too
And he's gonna make your head burn
Think of us in the depths of your despair
Making a home down there
And the pickets signs we shared
(You're gonna wish you had just obeyed Him)

The scars of your hate, remind of His love
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)
They keep us thinking that you could have obeyed God
(You're gonna wish you had just obeyed Him)
The scars of your hate, your useless raging
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)
We can't help thinking
You could have obeyed God
(You're gonna wish you, had just obeyed Him)
Rolling in the heat
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)

He has your heart inside of His hand
(You're gonna wish you had just obeyed Him)
And you played it – to defeat
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)
You could have obeyed God
Rolling in the heat
He has your heart inside of His hand
But you played it – took a beating

Throw your soul through hell's open door
Didn't count your blessings; instead you played the whore
Now your sorrow, we tell you loud and bold
It's pay back from God in kind; you reap what you have sown

(You're gonna wish you had obeyed Him)
You could have obeyed God
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)
You should have obeyed God, ooooo-ooah
(You're gonna wish you, had just obeyed Him)
Your God; your God; your God
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)
You could have obeyed God
(You're gonna wish you had just obeyed Him)
Rolling in the heat
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)
He has your heart inside of His hand
(You're gonna wish you had just obeyed Him)
And you played it – to defeat
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)

You could have obeyed God
(You're gonna wish you, had just obeyed Him)
Rolling in the heat
(Tears are gonna fall, rolling in the heat)
He has your heart inside of His hand
(You're gonna wish you had just obeyed Him)
But you played it
You played it
You played it
You played it – to defeat
