

Hold On

(Parody of "Hold On" by Kansas)

Look around Kansas, and tell me
What do you see?
You've chased sin with all of your might,
Now fags marry!
Kansas is dyin' in so many ways
Blessings you once had are lost,
Cuz Kansas loves gays

*Hold on, brothers hold on Cuz it's closer than you think
Down to hell the wicked sink
Hold on, sisters hold on
Cuz the Christ is on the way
Your tomorrow's not the same as today*

Rejecting the plain words of God
His anger has grown
We stood on your sidewalks outside
Your sin we've made known
Where will you run when His wrath you must bear?
Who will you turn to for help
When He comes through the air

*Hold on, brothers hold on
Cuz it's closer than you think
Down to hell the wicked sink
Hold on, sisters hold on
Cuz the Christ is on the way
Your tomorrow's not the same as today*

[Musical interlude]

Our God is patiently waiting
Til the time's thru
For your impenitent sin
He's coming for you
His anger is fierce, there'll be no holding back

He'll pour out His wrath and you'll know – that God is not slack!

*Hold on, brothers hold on [Let no man deceive you!]
Cuz it's closer than you think
Down to hell the wicked sink
Hold on, sisters hold on [God's standing by our side!]
Cuz the Christ is on the way
Your tomorrow's not the same*

*Hold on, brothers hold on [We see the signs of it daily!]
Cuz it's closer than you think
Down to hell the wicked sink
Hold on, sisters hold on [Judgment's around the corner]
Cuz the Christ is on the way
Your tomorrow's not the same
[Your tomorrow's not the same – Hold on!]*
