

Sweet Judgment Time (Parody of "Sweet Caroline" by Neil Diamond)

Once it began
Boston's sin kept on growing
Now all your filth is showing strong
Marrying fags
Sacrifice children for it
You know we warned with signs and songs

Hands – joinin' hands
Bloody flags; rebel cries; mocking God
Sweet judgment time
God's wrath never seemed so good
You've lost your mind
To pretend God every would
Accept you –

Into the night
Candlelit prayers and vigils
That's where your sin has gotten you

And when you rage
Ragin' runs off our shoulders
We're gonna tell you God hates you
Bombs, many bombs
Blowin' up; tearing you; killing you
Sweet judgment time
God's wrath never seemed so good
You've lost your mind
To pretend God ever would
Accept you

(musical interlude)

Sweet judgment time
God's wrath never seemed so good
We've been inclined
To believe He always would
Sweet judgment time
God's wrath never seemed so good
Sweet judgment time
And we knew that our God would
Sweet judgment time
