

Eternal Pain, Sulfur Rain

(to Prince's Purple Rain)

I never knew there'd be so much sorrow
I never knew there'd be so much pain
I lived my life in sin and laughter
All I want to do is warn – of hell's awful pain

Eternal pain, sulfur rain
Eternal pain, sulfur rain
Eternal pain, sulfur rain
I only want to see you all
Flee hell's awful pain

I never took the time to warn my brother
I should have been a faithful Bible friend
Now it's too late, no way for me to recover
Time is done, I've met an awful end

Eternal pain, sulfur rain
Eternal pain, sulfur rain
Eternal pain, sulfur rain
I only want to warn you
All to flee this awful pain

Honey I know, I know,
I know my life was vain
If I could only reach out – and tell the truth
(Tell the truth)

You say truth is hating
You call me an icon, cuz you're blind
I think you better listen
And let me tell you about this sulfur rain

Eternal pain, sulfur rain
Eternal pain, sulfur rain
If you could feel what I'm feelin' – maybe you'd understand

Eternal pain, sulfur rain
I only want to warn you
Only want to tell you
Flee this awful pain