

Daddy's Betraying Hands

(Parody of "Daddy's Hands" by Holly Dunn)

You'll remember Daddy's hands, folded often in false prayer
Refused his job to teach you, the truth of God not shared
He denied you Sodom's story, hardened heart so full of lies
Years of fornication, have left their mark behind

Remember Daddy's hands, how he'd cheat on mom at night
Failed in his duty, to teach you wrong from right
Selfish deeds won't be forgotten, faithless dads across the land
In hell you will remember, betraying Daddy's hands

Daddy's hands – have left this nation's children cryin'.
Daddy's hands – with every breath he's taught you wrong
Daddy's hands were full of sinnin'
You will come to understand
There was only selfish hate in Daddy's hands

You'll remember Daddy's hands, to adultery they led Sacrificed God's truth, just to keep perversion fed
Faithless fathers' legacy: transgender filthy land
Don't forget destruction, it came from Daddy's hands

Daddy's hands – have left this nation's soldier's dyin'.
Daddy's hands – with every breath he's taught you wrong
Daddy's hands, were full of sinnin'
You will come to understand
There was only lying hate in Daddy's hands

Daddy's hands – have left this nation's children cryin'
Daddy's hands – with every breath he's taught you wrong
Daddy's hands, were full of sinnin'
You will come to understand
There was only betrayal – in Daddy's hands
