

The Bible Says No People Are Good

(Parody of "Most People Are Good" by Luke Bryan)

I believe kids oughta hear truth as soon as they can Tell them why God destroyed Sodom, so they'll understand
I believe you gotta repent and make amends
'Cause nobody gets a second chance once their life ends
I believe in serving God with all you've got.
Warning all the world about their eternal lot

The Bible says no people are good
No one on their own qualifies for sainthood
I believe sins you do in the night, will be brought to an end by Christ's glorious might
I believe adultery's not love
The sin of Sodom, you should be ashamed of
I believe this world is twice as bad as it looks
The Bible says no people are good

I believe them streets of gold aren't reached through works
Filled with God's elect, foreordained pre-birth
I believe that youth is spent well obeying God
Cause wisdom in your teens comes from fearing God.
I believe if you just go by the nightly news
You'll see that all mankind is lost, except a few

The Bible says no people are good
No one on their own qualifies for sainthood
I believe sins you do in the night, will be brought to an end by Christ's glorious might
I believe adultery's not love
The sin of Sodom, you should be ashamed of
I believe this world is twice as bad as it looks
The Bible says no people are good

I believe that life is short 'cause flesh is grass, and every breathe's on loan, the first one to the last

The Bible says no people are good
No one on their own qualifies for sainthood
I believe sins you do in the night, will be brought to an end by Christ's glorious might
I believe adultery's not love
The sin of Sodom, you should be ashamed of
I believe this world is twice as bad as it looks
The Bible says no people are good

Jesus says no people are good.

The Lord says no people are good.
